

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

U.S. Merchant Systems Announces the Launch of USMS University™ the Industry's FIRST Source for Online Bankcard Sales Training!

February 8, 2008-

Fremont, CA- U.S. Merchant Systems is proud to announce the official launch of USMS University! USMS-U is the industry's BEST and ONLY source for online bankcard training. This training has been designed to introduce new Agents to the industry and is perfect for the experienced bankcard veteran to use as a refresher course.

USMS-U is FREE BANKCARD TRAINING and is only available to registered USMS Agents.

The training consists of twenty-two chapters of valuable information. Each chapter consists of a chapter overview, an interactive presentation and a test. Every chapter is PACKED with the valuable information you need to become successful in this growing industry. This training challenges the user to pass each chapter test with a score of 100% in order to progress to the next chapter. This ensures that every USMS Agent is completely trained in bankcard sales and confident in their skills before they go out and meet with merchants.
